Margaret Martin named as Cincinnati Bengals New Director of Media Relations

Cincinnati, Ohio (April 2, 2032) — BENGALS announced today that Margaret Martin has been named the new Director of Media Relations. Margaret Martin has previously worked with other NFL organizations, such as the Green Bay Packers and the Chicago Bears. Margaret Martin will be the first ever woman to head the Media Relations department in the Cincinnati Bengals organization.

“We’re proud to have appointed Ms. Martin as our new Director of Media Relations,” Mike Brown, President of the Cincinnati Bengals organization, said. “Margaret has done fantastic work with the Chicago Bears department. She turned their public affairs department around, and we are excited to see what she will do for our organization.”

The Bengals organization has been struggling within their media department, and they have high hopes that Margaret Martin will turn their department into one of the best. Margaret Martin will be in charge of getting positive media coverage of the Bengals organization. Ms. Martin will also be creating new brand deals for the players in the organization, to help them expand their own brands. Margaret Martin will be a great asset to the organization.

Employee Comments:

Eric Ball, director of player relations, said “The organization is very excited to welcome Margaret Martin as a member of our team. We believe that she will be a great addition to the organization, and are excited to see how she will turn around the media department.

About Margaret Martin:

Margaret Martin graduated from Saint Norbert College in May 2027, with a degree in Communication and Media studies. While at Saint Norbert, Margaret held an internship with the Green Bay Packer Organization, working in their public affairs department. She held that position for two years, until she graduated and accepted a position with the Chicago Bears organization as their Manager of Public Affairs and Media Relations. She stayed with the Bears organization for 5 years, until accepting a position with the Bengals organization.
